FR KEN WRITES

I think most of you are well aware that last weekend marked 60 years since my ordination as a priest, and I wish to thank most warmly those of you who in various ways wished me well. We were unable to have a proper celebration owing to the coronavirus regulations – this will have to take place at a later date. The photo is of the private Mass I celebrated on Sunday.

Churches may now be open for the celebration of Mass. However, for the time being, possibly for July, St Aidan's will not be open. We need more time to plan out and ensure that all the necessary precautions are in place, bearing in mind that those 70 years or older are not eligible to help. This, amongst other things, means that we need more people, and especially younger ones, to help with the various tasks involved.

Meanwhile, we continue to tap into the various streamed Masses and pray especially to a speedy end to the present plague. God bless you all, Fr Ken.

UPDATE FROM LOUISE

I'm delighted to be able to let you know that after 14 very long weeks, Nick was discharged from hospital this Thursday. Thank you to everyone for your prayers and good wishes.

ST AIDAN'S PARISH AGM

The Parish AGM was originally scheduled for Sunday 5th July. Due to the current regulations we will not be holding a meeting, but the annual report from the chairman and the financial statement have been produced as usual and these are available to read on the parish website:
