FR KEN WRITES

Let us continue in our prayer for and support of all who are suffering through the coronavirus, especially those in the badly affected parts of our world.

Here at St Aidan's we hope to begin to celebrate public Masses from Saturday 1st August at 6.00pm and Sunday 2nd August at 11.00am. We have a team of helpers (and further volunteers are welcome) who will be organising parishioners entry and exit from the church, and seating arrangements. The Masses will be without singing and Communion will be under one kind in the hand only. The offertory collections will be as you leave the church by the side door.

PLANS TO RE-OPEN

Thank you to everyone who has come forward and offered to help with the many jobs which will need to be done before we can re-open, and on an ongoing basis before, during and after every Mass. Those who have offered to help should have received an email from the office on Thursday, and details of our information and training meeting will follow.

We always need more volunteers, and we will be unable to open if we do not have enough, so if you have not yet been in touch but are able to join our team of helpers then please email the office as soon as possible. You must of course, be under 70, in good health and not shielding.

Please be assured we are doing everything we can to keep Fr Ken, our volunteers and our parishioners safe.

There is more information about re-opening churches, with a list of frequently asked questions, on the Diocesan website: <https://northamptondiocese.org/reopening-of-our-churches/> but please email the office if you have a query that has not been answered there.

LATEST NEWS

Please go to the 'latest news' section of our website for information on the new Disasters Emergency Committee coronavirus appeal, and an update from Restore Hope with an appeal for delivery drivers.
