RE-OPENING OF OUR CHURCH

St Aidan's will be opening its doors again this weekend for the public celebration of Mass, at 6.00pm on Saturday 1st and 11.00am on Sunday 2nd August, and then every weekend from then on. For the time being, weekday Mass will remain private, although we hope this will change in time.

Everyone who has filled in a parish registration form in the last year should have received an email containing a letter with lots of information about how we have prepared for re-opening, and what to expect if you attend Mass. If you did not receive this email and would like to be on our list please fill in a parish registration form which can be found on our website:

<http://www.staidanslittlechalfont.co.uk/contact-us/>

The letter has been uploaded to the website and can be read here:

Please note, The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales have continued to offer dispensation regarding the obligation of Sunday Mass attendance.

FR KEN WRITES

It goes without saying that we are living in a difficult time and our abbreviated liturgy reflects this. However, it is a challenge to appreciate what is really important, namely our coming together as a Christian community and celebrating the Real Presence of the Lord.

At the end of June, I celebrated 60 years of priestly service, and I have tried to mark that by writing a little booklet which is designed as a profound thank you to you all and many others for the loving support you have given me. Please feel free to take a copy home with you after Mass as a small outward sign of my appreciation.
